ANNOUNCEMENT

OOCL Offers Vessel Information Subscription Service

Dear Customer,

OOCL believes that when our customers succeed, we succeed.

In order to ensure that our customers have the most up-to-date, correct and complete Vessel information, OOCL is pleased to announce that customers can now subscribe to our Vessel Information Board (VIB) e-mail service. The new VIB service automatically distributes the information you need to your inbox, wherever and when-ever you choose.

OOCL's VIB e-mail service <http://www.oocl.com/hongkong/eng/localinformation/vib/> will provide information such as vessel names, voyage numbers, vessel on board and sailing dates for export goods, berthing terminals, free storage period of import goods and foreign exchange rates.

The VIB data will arrive attached to your e-mail in Excel format, which means that customers do not need to access the Web via hyperlinks for their data. Two Excel forms will be available: inbound and outbound; and customers have the option of subscribing to one or both files.

To ensure that our customers have the most-timely information, the VIB files will be sent to subscribers at 10:30am (Hong Kong Time) every day. Subscribers also have the option of receiving the VIB data on a daily or weekly basis.

In offering this efficient, user-friendly service, OOCL is happy to provide increasingly efficient service to meet all the transportation and logistics needs of its customers.

Please subscribe through <http://www.oocl.com/eng/esubscription/> now to enjoy the benefit.
